Teacher Appreciation Week

Our students, families, and staff celebrated our incredible teachers last week with two community dinners! Without the relentless dedication of our teachers, ESC wouldn't be the program that it is today! Thank you to all the families who came out to support the work our teachers do for our students.

Get To Know Our Teaching Artists!

Alan Chan

Alan conducts our Cadenza orchestra and will be graduating in May with a degree in Violin Performance and Pedagogy from CU Boulder.

He says that what he loves most about being a teacher is when he learns something new from his students!

Olasuyi Ige

Olasuyi is an ESC Fellow teaching private lessons while attending the Lamont School of Music at the University of Denver.

If you're interested, check out his upcoming senior recital at the Lamont School of Music!

Allyson Stibbards

Allyson is one of ESC's newer teaching artists, teaching the Crescendo violas and aiding with our younger classes!

She says her favorite part of teaching is seeing her students' eyes light up after playing.

Spirit Week Fun!

Character Day!

Pajama Day!

Who doesn't love Frozen?!

Maestra Antonella!

Thank you to the wonderful Sphere Ensemble for working with Crescendo this past week. Antonella made a fabulous opening debut as conductor! Here at ESC we encourage students to step out of their comfort zones to discover new passions and skills.

United Way Volunteer Day

Thank you to this thoughtful and hardworking group of individuals from Filsinger Energy Partners! As part of National Volunteer Week, these volunteers helped clean up around the music center by weeding, painting, and repairing paper violins for next year school year. We are so grateful for our volunteers! If you are interested in becoming a volunteer, click the signup link below.
